

Thelma "Tiny" McNeese

Thelma "Tiny" McNeese went home to be with the Lord on Tuesday evening, December 1, 1998, after a long and fruitful life.

Tiny was born in Merriltown, Texas, on May 9, 1902. She moved to Round Rock in 1931, where she resided for 67 years. Also known throughout the Round Rock, Georgetown, Taylor and Austin areas as "Ms. Mac", Tiny was best known for her work as a seamstress, most notably for 35 years of sewing uniforms for members of the Round Rock pep and cheerleading squads. Her consistent assistance to Round Rock residents in the church and community whenever and wherever she could exemplified her spirit of unselfish concern for others. Her years of service behind the scene were honored publicly in 1992, when she was recognized as a "Local Legend" by the Round Rock Historic Preservation Commission. Proverbs 31:10-31.

Tiny was preceded in death by her husband, Edd McNeese; her son, Edward McNeese; and her daughter, Lillianette Gregory.

She is survived by four granddaughters, four great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandson.

Visitation with the family is scheduled on Thursday evening, December 3, 1998, at Cook-Walden/Condra Funeral Home, 309 W. Main St., in Round Rock from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m.. Services will be held at First Baptist Church of Round Rock on Friday, December 4, 1998, at 11:00 a.m..
